

Please advise the type of organisation you represent

None of the options are correct!

What word or phrase best describes you organisation's aspiration or strategy for contracting with VCSEs

Coproduction

Cautious

Simplistic and jargon free staid

Co-production

Sustainability sustainable funding for necessary services

Lacks ambition

Not complex or overly time consuming

What word or phrase best describes you organisation's aspiration or strategy for contracting with VCSEs

Partnering with experts in the field

Actively engaging

In order to address the wider determinants of health we need to ensure we have a robust and sustainable VCSE

co production

Not aspirational

Collaborative service procurement as part of wider system change

Definite desire to do more

Part of solution

Co-produced

What word or phrase best describes your organisation's aspiration or strategy for contracting with VCSEs

Concerned about compliance with the PCR's

co production

Would like to, but not developed.

Capitalises on and embeds the skill set of VCSE partners

Happening on the ground but not sure there is an organisation-wide aspiration

Coproduced with those with lived experience work in partnership between us as a Trust, the ICB and VCSEs. Aim to build capacity in workforce and meet gaps, offer a different approach work through data and information sharing challenges

Not coordinated strategically

What word or phrase best describes you organisation's aspiration or strategy for contracting with VCSEs

Needs led and coproduced

co-production, and working in alliance

Dovetails with related programmes/workstreams where VCSE support delivery

Evidence based

Learning in short term to enable long term pathway building