

South East Nursing and Midwifery Green Week

18-22 March 2024, 13:00-14:00

Programme:

Monday	Tuesday	Wednesday	Thursday	Friday (extended 13:00-14:30)
Theme: Population Health	Theme: Nursing Care Pathways	Theme: Children and Young People	Theme: Innovation in Health Care	Theme: Clinical Leadership and Awards Ceremony
Chair: Chief Nurse Andrea Lewis	Chair: Chief Midwife Kaye Wilson	Chair: Chief Nurse Andrea Lewis	Chair: Chief Midwife Kaye Wilson	Chair: Chief Nurse Andrea Lewis
Imogen Stringer, Sustainability Clinical Fellow, Chief Nursing Office, Val Weston, IPC Nurse Consultant, National Infection Prevention and Control Team, Sustainability and Infection Prevention and Control (IPC) National Collaborative	Joanne King, Consultant Nurse – Respiratory, Clinical Lead Frimley Adult Integrated Respiratory Service, Sustainability and Respiratory Illness.	Sadie Sullivan, Practice Development Nurse for Children's Services, WGH & SRH (UHSussex). Nature and Nurture: Providing considerate and effective CYP MH education in an alternative environment	Suzy Moody, Clinical Auditor and Lead Educator, University Hospitals Southampton; The Pie and Porridge Project	Lucy Brown, European Clinical Delivery Lead for the Centre for Sustainable Healthcare, Integrating Sustainable Practices in Healthcare
Duncan Burton, Deputy Chief Nursing Officer, Important role of Nurses and Midwives in Population Health	Smithamole Anil, IPC Nurse Specialist and Diana Thackray, Head of Infection Prevention & Control Berkshire Healthcare NHS Trust. Promoting safety & sustainability through reduction in overuse of non-sterile gloves	Liu Batchelor, Sustainability presenter, video producer, and media/public speaking coach, LVB Creative. You don't have to be a sustainability expert to play your part.	Pete Waddingham; Net Zero Lead, Health Innovation Network, How Net Zero Innovation can help across Nursing and Midwifery pathways of care
Global Action Plan: Dr Malcolm White, Clean Air Specialist - Global Action Plan Air Pollution: How can healthcare staff help protect their patients?	Rebecca Housley, Head of Nursing, Virtual Wards, HHFT and Kate Townsend, Programme Manager, SE GNHS team Exploring the Carbon Footprint of Virtual Wards in Hampshire Hospitals	Luci O'Reilly, Barnardo's: NHSE Young Person's Health Challenge and Sustainability. Young People's Health Challenge - Getting Children & Young People Interested, Involved and Leading in the NHS	Tammie Cook-Duncan, Community Mental Health Nurse, East Brighton Community Mental Health Centre, Nature Connection in a mental health team.	AWARDS CEREMONY

#Greenernursesandmidwives #GreenerRNRM #SEGreenerNHS #GreenerNHS #NetZeroNHS